We are proud to announce a brand new group with a brand new album! Alfred Lorinius and Johan Birgenius known for their collaboration with Naoko Sakata among others have teamed up with Fabian Kallerdahl from modern Swedish jazz legends Musicmusicmusic. They have composed new music. Expressive and alive with spontaneity as a guiding star. A massive recording day in the rehearsal studio resulted into a whole bunch of gemstones. Three digital singles dropping this summer and in the fall the full-length album will hit the stores. Förnuft och Känsla (Sense and Sensibility) is a tribute to music, sense and sensibility. Special thanks to Jane Austen.
